

AAZK Chapter Resources: Chapter Handbook

Produced by the AAZK Resource Committee

This document was produced to help answer common questions faced by AAZK Chapters. The goal of this resource is to act as a guideline that completely and systematically answers common chapter questions with the understanding that all chapters are run differently. This information may serve as a companion, but not as an alternative, to the AAZK National Operations Manual.

Table of Contents

1. Formation
 - Gauge Interest
 - Determine Goals for Chapter
 - Formal Steps to the Creation of a Chapter
 - Elect Officers
 - Review Model AAZK Chapter Constitution and Bylaws

2. Function
 - Elections
 - Executive & Officer Responsibilities
 - Officer Duties
 - President
 - Vice President
 - Secretary
 - Treasurer
 - Meetings
 - Equipment, Storage, & Electronic Media

3. Membership
 - Recruitment
 - Membership Benefits
 - Voting Rights
 - Leadership and Networking Skills
 - Conservation Based Events
 - Professional Development
 - Member Recognition
 - Chapter Activities and Social Events
 - Membership Benefits Document Template

4. Finances
 - Completing a Chapter Re-charter
 - Tracking Finances
 - Protecting Chapter Assets

State and Local Tax Requirements

5. Holding a Fundraiser

- Getting Started
- Planning a Larger Event
- Helpful Guidelines
- Possible Fundraiser Venues
- Example Fundraiser Ideas

6. Communication

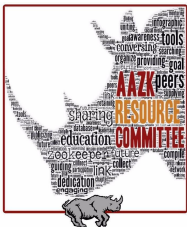

- Contacting AAZK office, Board of Directors & Committees
- Within Chapter Leadership
- With Members
- Passing on Tribal Knowledge
- Within the Community

7. Working with your Host Institution

- Communication
- Supporting your Institution
- Institutional Support for Chapters
- Memorandum of Understanding (MOU's)

8. Multi-Institutional Chapters

- Reaching out to other facilities
- Meetings
- Facility Liaisons

The AAZK Resource Committee's Chapter and Networking Resource Team is responsible for the content and production of this document.

For questions, clarification, or suggestions for future resources, contact: arc@aazk.org.

